

MEN OF PURPOSE

MISSION STATEMENT: Men of Purpose is a group which strives to help men move their lives toward service, personal spiritual growth, interpersonal relationships, and witness for Jesus Christ. The group provides men with the opportunity to read and to discuss articles by various authors and how those thoughts can be applied to our personal Christian lives.

WHERE: LOWCOUNTRY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH - Parlor

WHEN: Saturday mornings – 8:15 to 8:30 for coffee and refreshments, followed by an hour for discussion time. We end promptly at 9:30. Meetings begin Sept. 10, 2016. At that time we will be discussing “Too Busy Not to Pray” by Bill Hybels.

WHO: All men are welcome whether a member of LPC or not!

WHAT: Men of Purpose is a discussion based group and a way for men to grow in their faith and learn to practice it every day. After coffee and refreshments we start with prayer and a short business meeting. A scripture passage is reviewed. We break into smaller groups of three or five to discuss questions prepared by that day’s facilitator (this leadership opportunity is shared among the group). Later, we reassemble to share with each other the small group discussions and to discuss additional questions. All conversations and discussions are confidential.
